WASHINGTON. A 860,000 Swindle Unearthed-Ex-Congresuman Stokes Arrested.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 27, '71. On the 24th of July, 1870, Congress man Stokes, in conjunction with other members of the Tennessee delegation, and m strong Southern lobby, succeeded in gotting a bill through Congress for the re-lief of Captain Beatty and his company the "Independent Tennessee Rangers." It was claimed that this was an irregular organization of Tennessee volunteers, who with the majorities annexed: Vinton, Republican majority of the Union, and this act granted them the usual government bounties, pay and emolument from June, 1862, to April, 1865, the same to be allowed by the Section, Knox, and Auditor of the Treasury upon the presentation of the proper papers. After his term in Congress expired, Stokes was very busy in getting the accounts of this any settled, About three weeks, the attention of certain officials was salled to irregularities in bounty claims for this company which were presented for payment at the Second Auditor's office. tives were at once put on the track, and they sneceeded in unearthing certain facts with regard to the pretended claims which showed a systematic attempt to windle the Government. It was found that Beatty's company never enlisted over never rendered any military aid to the Government whatever. The rest of the claim never existed, save on paper.

It was found that a clerk in the Second Auditor's office, named Victor S. Powell and who prepared all the bounty papers relating to this company, was acting in collusion with Stokes and several other prominent parties to practice this imposon upon the Treasury. Powell was arrested this morning and Stokes this even-ing, and both placed under bonds of $15,-000. A. J. Meigs, clerk of the Supreme Court, went bail for Stokes. Detective are now on the track of other parties wh are operating in Tennessee, and their arrest is momentarily expected amount involved in these swindles is $60,-
